This donation allows us to participate with the ADS, but our participants will not have to pay any Non-ADS fees, but if you are an ADS member, please send a copy of your membership card with your entry form. Since we have always adhered to the ADS show rules, this change will not change how we run this horse show. Show Management reserves the right to combine, cancel or add classes as the number of entries warrants.

If you are interested in learning more about driving, please come and let the show secretary know that you are there and have questions. We will get you a person to escort you around to answer questions.
